

Re: Super Bowl - This halftime show should be viewed as the final straw in what is a litany of lude and disgusting broadcasting choices by MTV. You have a responsibility to the American public to keep their garbage they show on cable off of our screen. We all know that "sex sells", but if you allow this pitiful attempt of "shock value" to go severely unpunished, why does your organization even exist? Protect our children and do something!